

II.A.10 Marketing Material

Comcast’s Business Services website contains publicly available information regarding each of its Dedicated Service offers. Aside from the content on the website, the only Dedicated Service offer for which Comcast creates and distributes marketing collateral is Metro Ethernet. This content is not publicly facing, but is presented externally to prospects. Comcast does not create or distribute marketing collateral for its Cell Backhaul or Legacy Fiber offers. Comcast’s Metro Ethernet offer is available in the following geographies of its network:

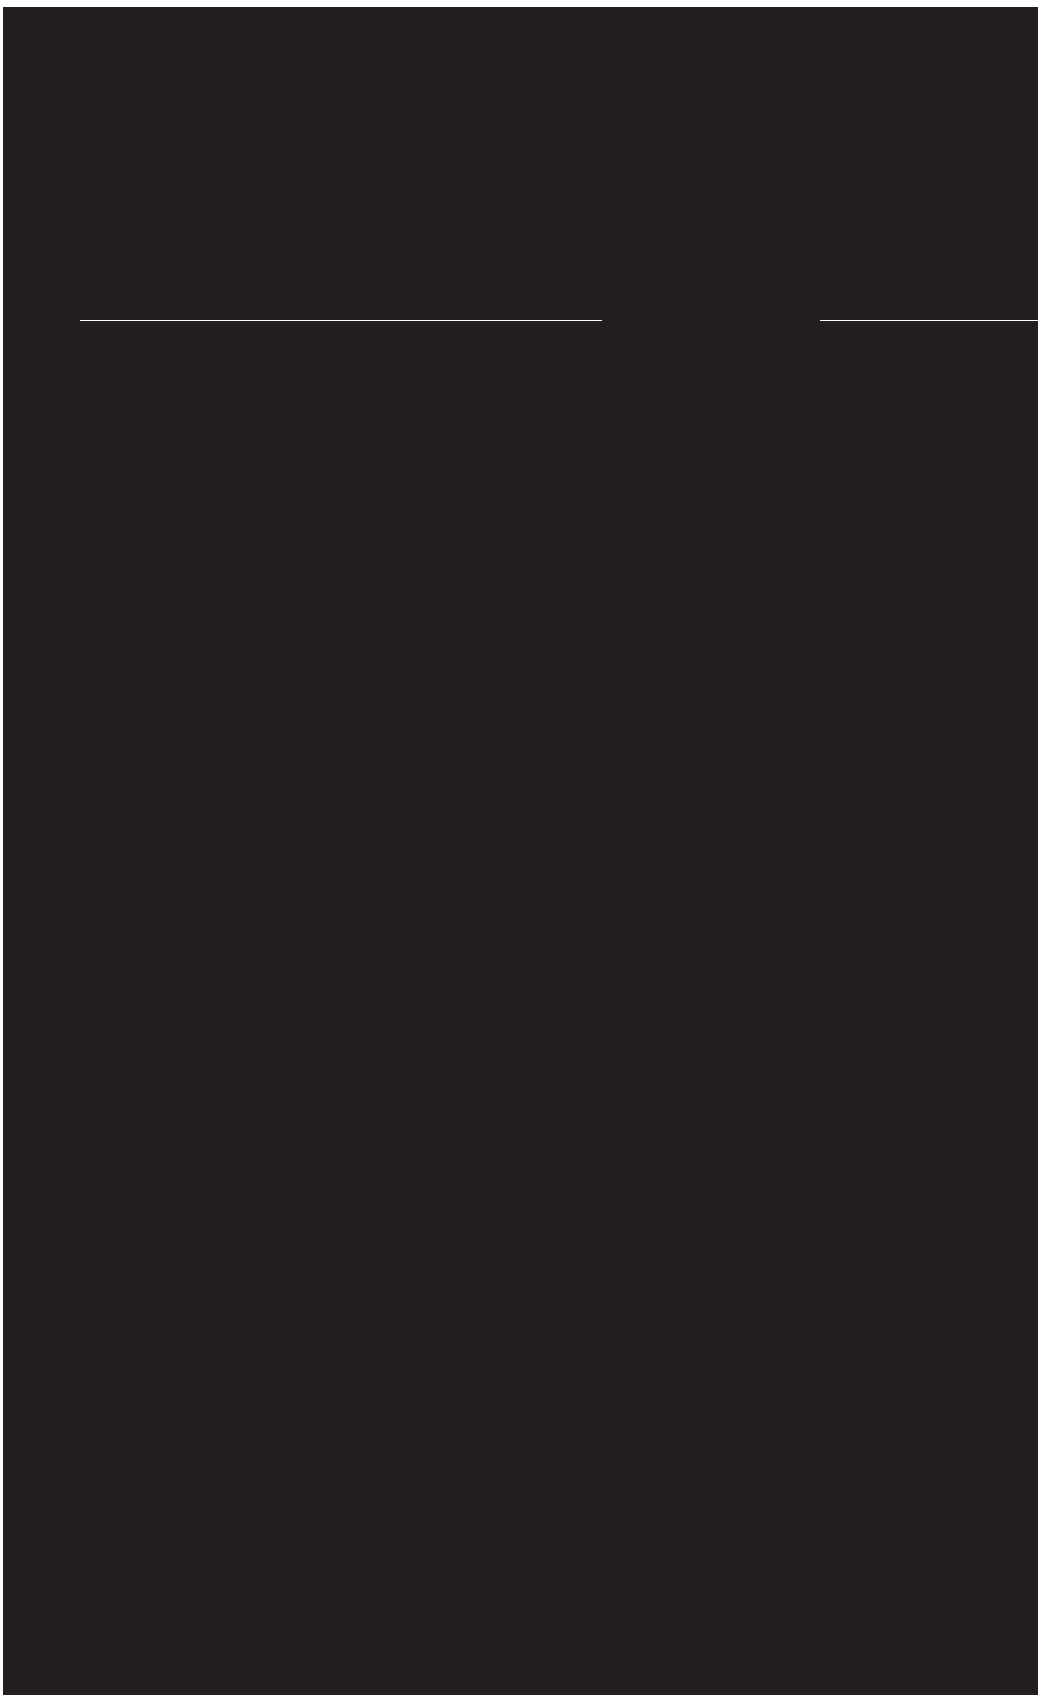

[Begin Confidential Information]

Location	Market
[Redacted Content]

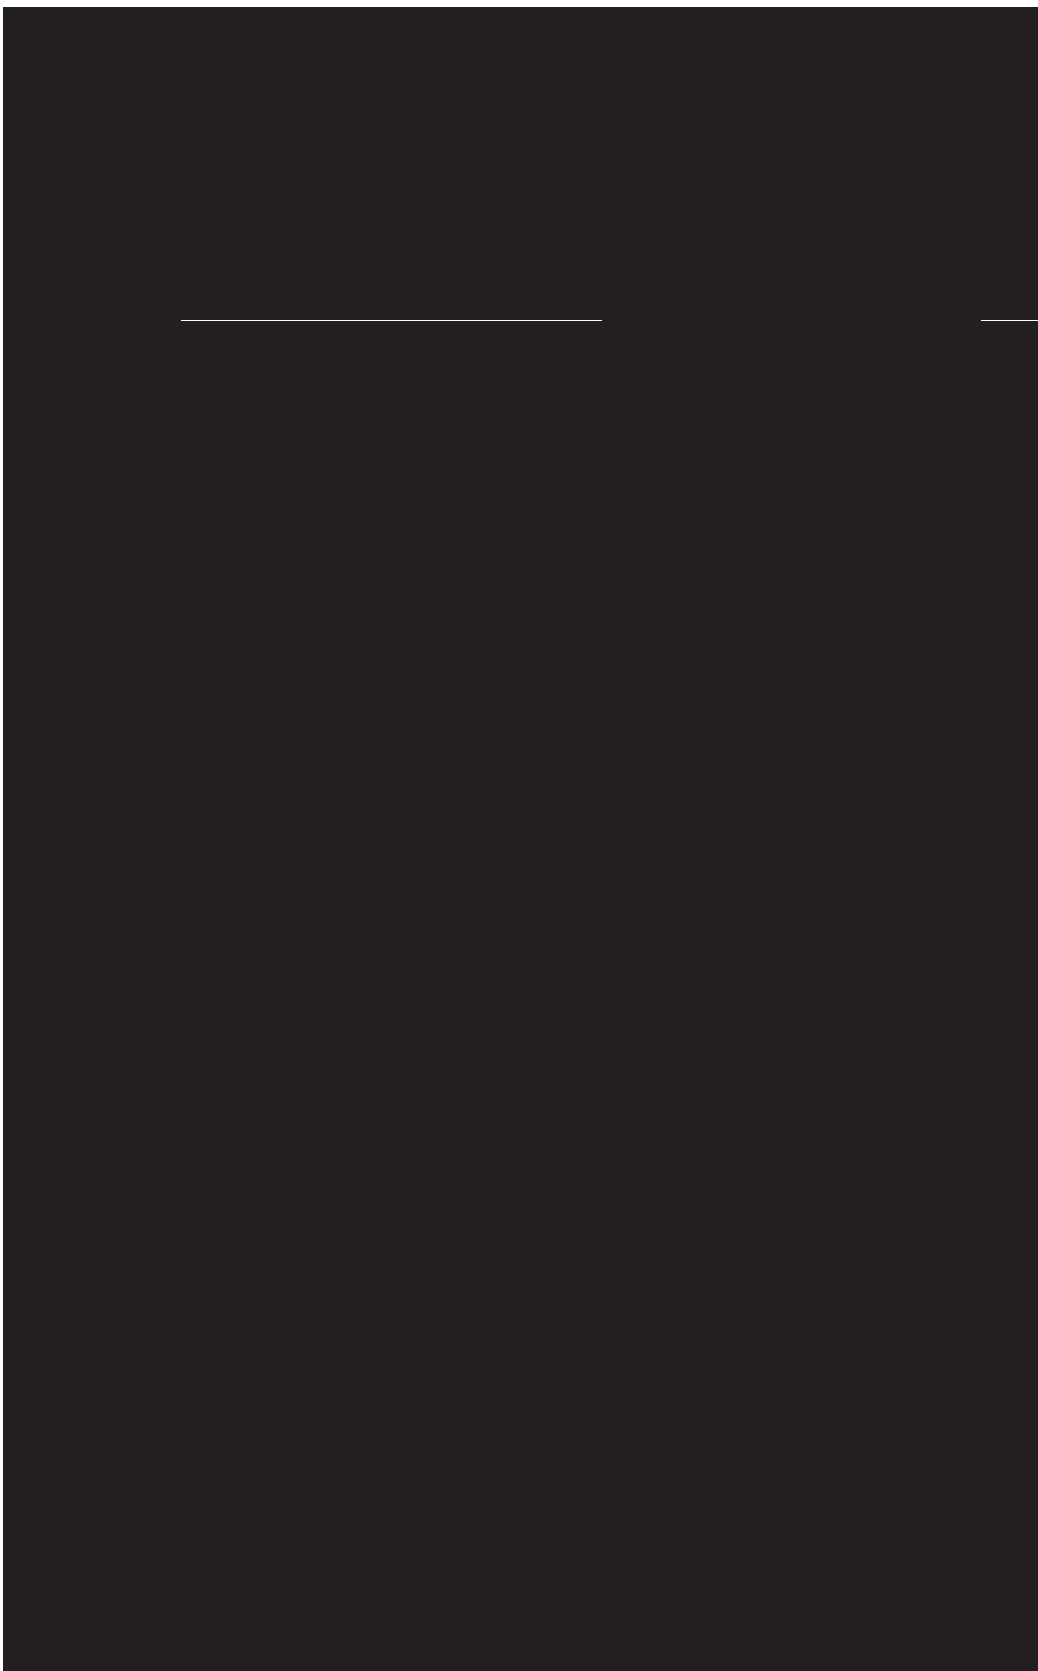

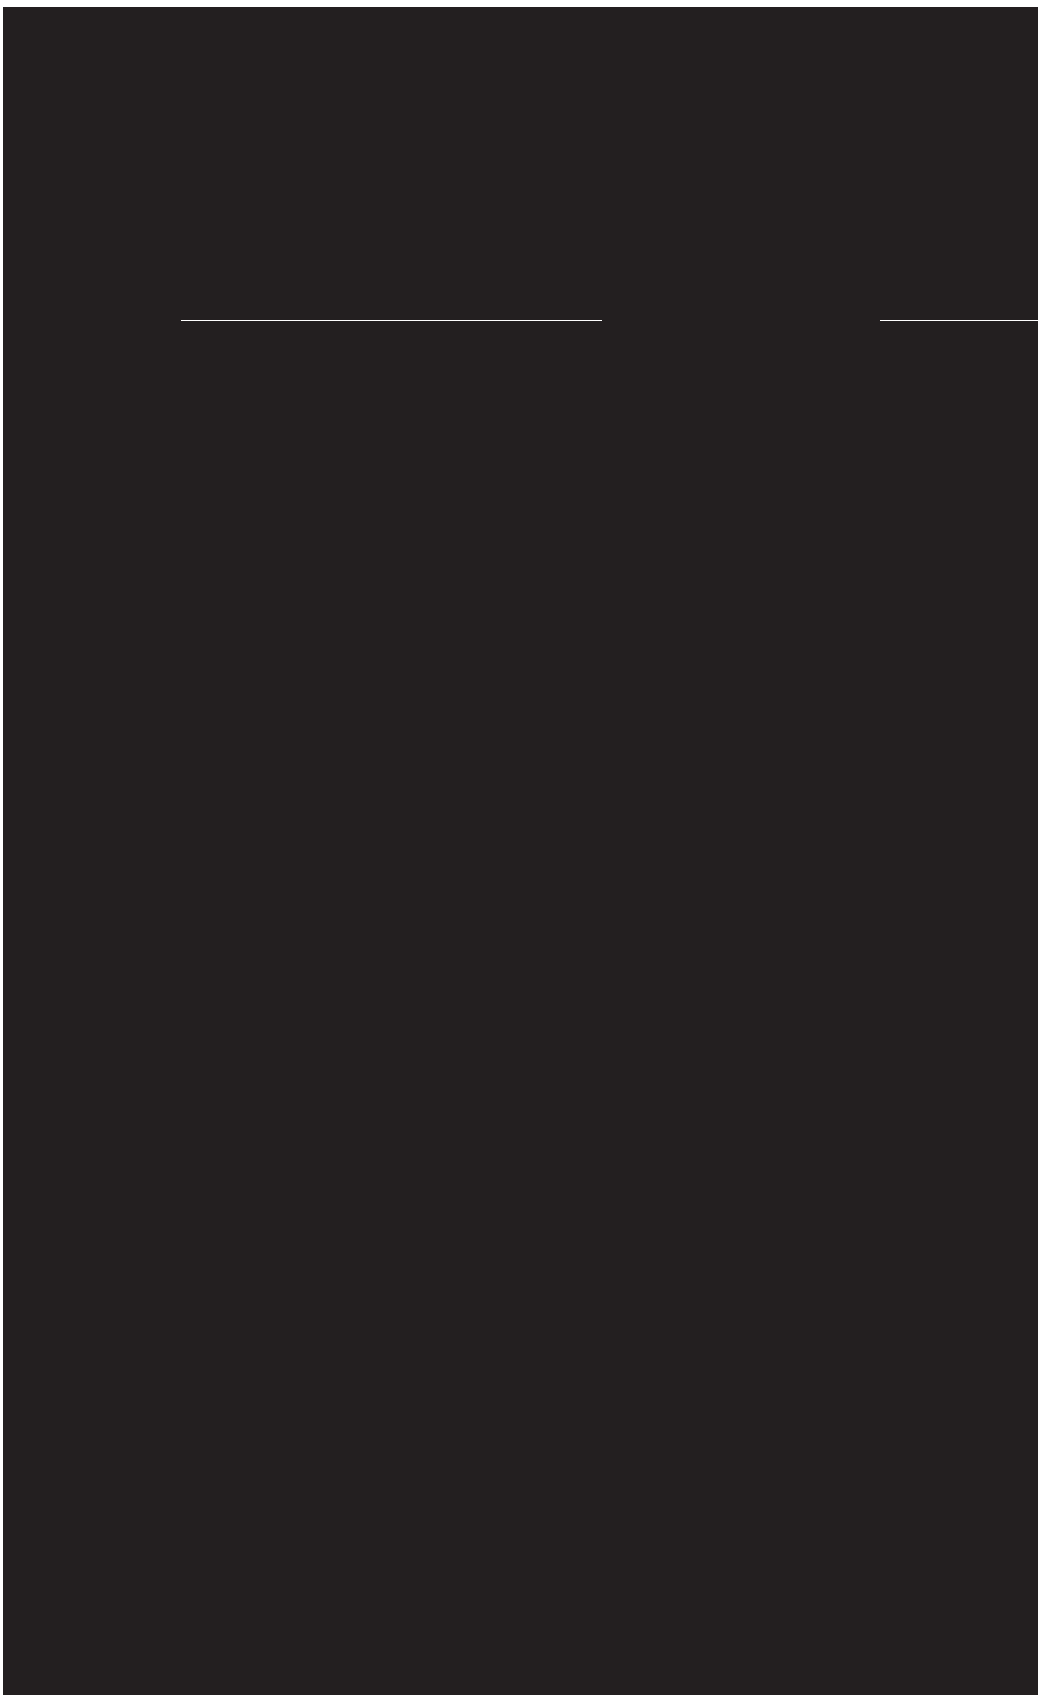

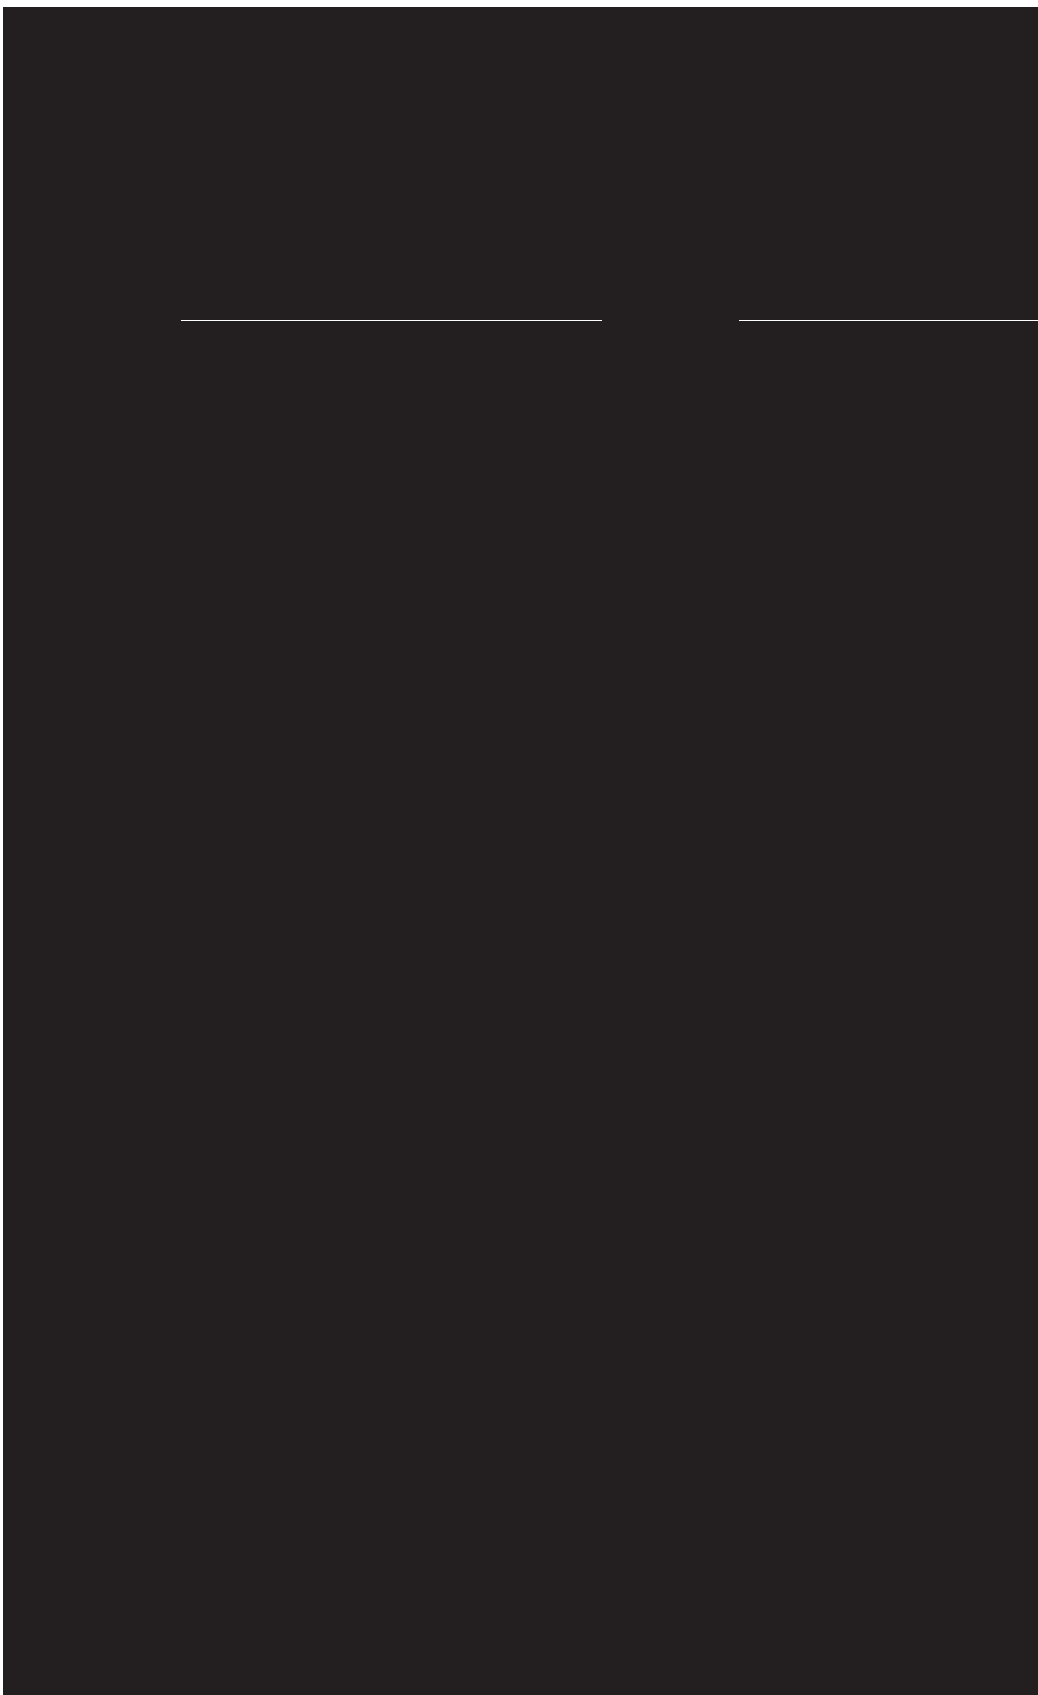

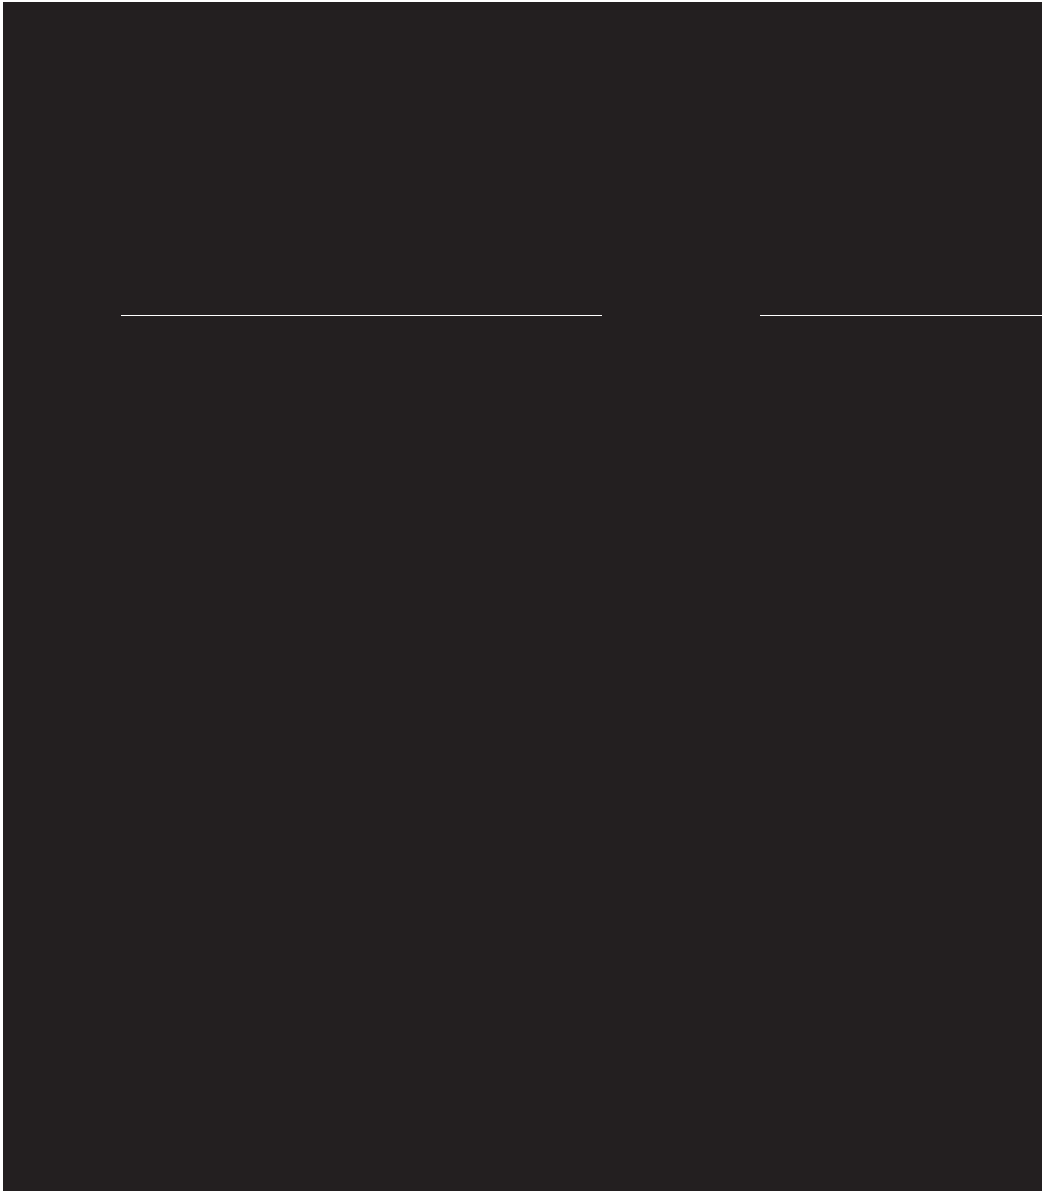

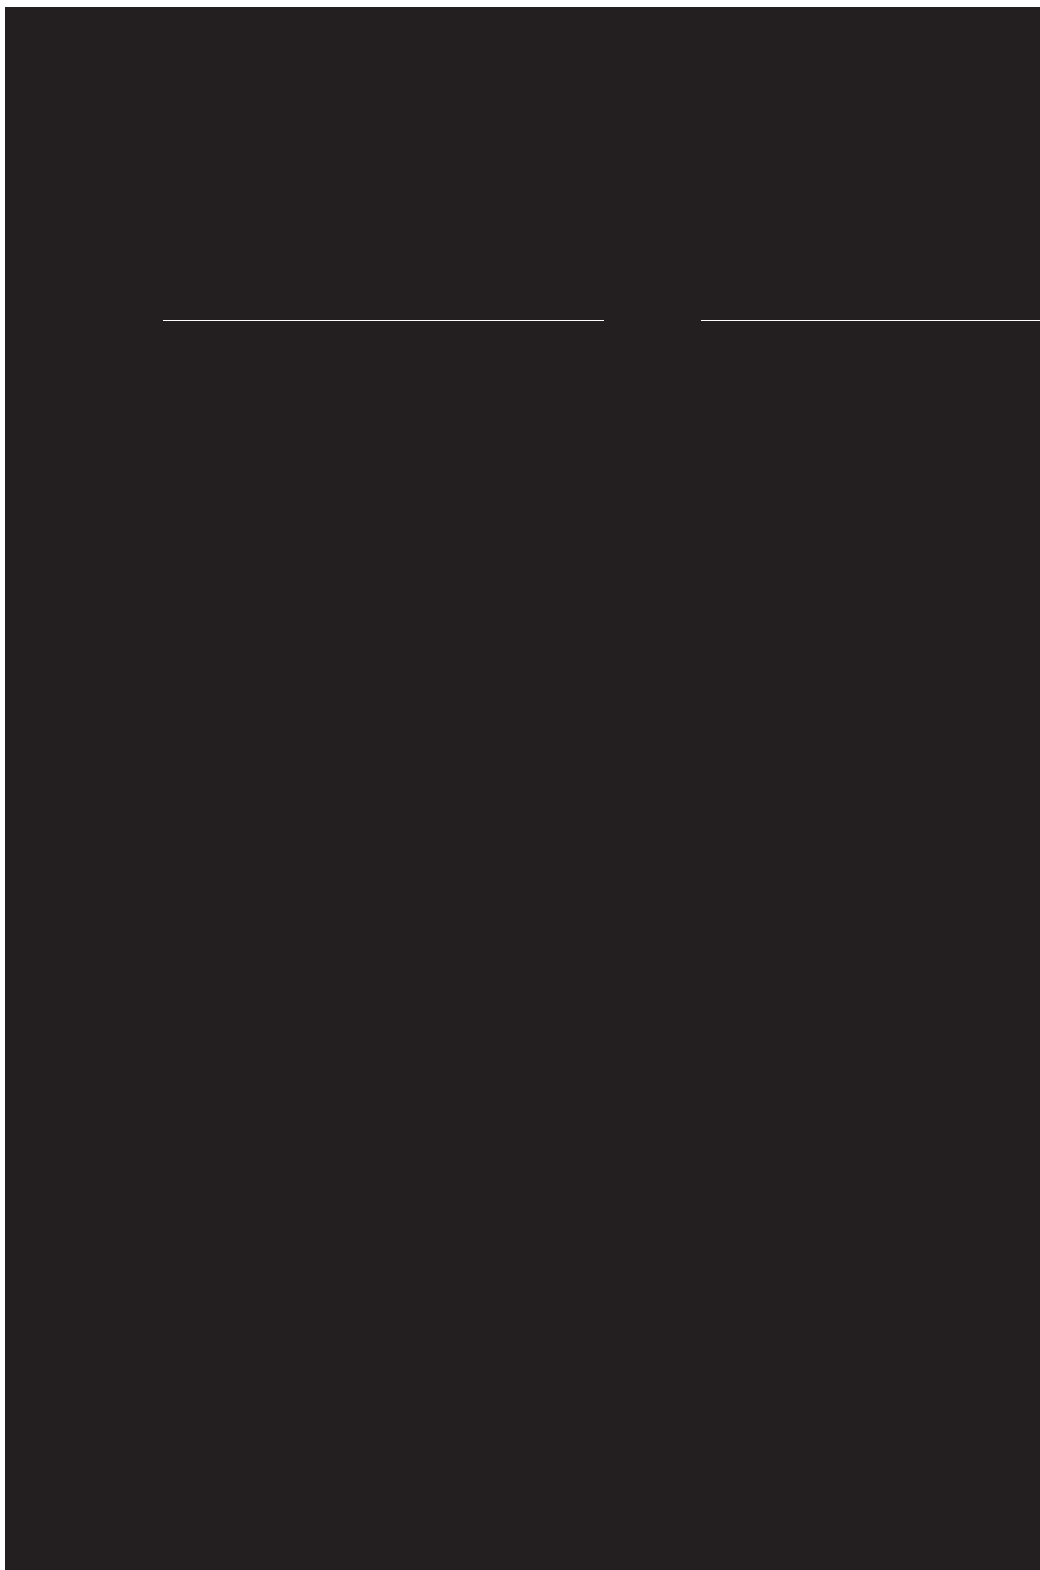

[End Confidential Information]

Comcast plans to expand its Metro Ethernet offer by 12/31/2015 to the following geographies in its network:

[Begin Highly Confidential Information]

Location	Market
[Redacted Table Content]

[End Highly Confidential Information]

Comcast's marketing material does not identify particular locations in which Dedicated Service is and is not offered. However, select pieces of collateral contain very high level maps displaying geographies in which Comcast offers Metro Ethernet (see sample below).
